

Comments From Our Training Participants

"Thank you for giving us hope and tools to be the 'Change' our society needs."
—Sarita Williams, Principal, Meridian Middle School, Kent, WA

"You lit a fire in me of which I was not yet aware."
—Janae Iverson, Spanish Teacher, West Valley High School, Yakima, WA

"I became an educator to help others. UnityWorks has given us the tools. It's definitely a need. I now sense there is hope. We have to address the issues and now we know how." —Alejandra Rodriguez, Assistant Principal, Hoover Elementary, Yakima, WA

"I am reading about all this anti-Asian activity and I worry that it's not getting any better for the human race. We truly need UnityWorks more than ever."
—Alan Matsumoto, Principal (retired), Garfield Elementary School, Yakima, WA

"You have made a huge impact. I have found my purpose again."
—Relyn Strom, Assistant Principal, Satus Elementary, Wapato, WA

"It's small groups like us that will make a difference. Racism, classism, sexism... are part of us all I believe. Recognizing these biases, being honest about them and confronting them is the work." —Craig Church, Principal, Totem Falls Elementary School, Snohomish, WA

"What an amazing 90 minutes spent with two unbelievably articulate, knowledgeable and skilled presenters around Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, today."
—Priscilla Treviño, Executive Director, Yakima Schools Foundation

"Thank you so much for an awesome presentation. It was exactly what we were looking for! The work you do will have an impact on our community, our country, and our world for years to come." —Jamie Shores, Community Engagement Manager, United Way of Central Washington

"I hope to see such an excellent program expand to schools and districts around our state." —Kevin Chase, Superintendent, ESD 105

"The entire workshop was excellent! Anchoring this program is a true understanding of how to start and continue conversations about race. Bravo Team UnityWorks!"
—Dr. Candace Veacock, Assistant Professor, University of Nottingham, China
